ORDER RE: MOTION FOR DEFAULT JUDGMENT

The matter before the court is the court's reconsideration of the plaintiff's motion for default judgment. The court finds from an examination of the file that the adversary proceeding was filed on February 13, 1991. Defendant Juneal Hursh Marsh was served with summons and notice with the adversary complaint attached by first-class U.S. mail, postage pre-paid, all in accordance with Bankr. R. 7004 on February 21, 1991. Defendants have failed to answer or file a responsive motion and are in default pursuant to Bankr. R. 7055. The court finds from affidavit and proofs on file that plaintiff is entitled to the relief requested in its complaint and that defendant is not infants or incompetent persons or under any other legal disability nor is she a member of the Armed Forces of the United States entitled to protection under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, 50 U.S.C. app. § 520.

IT IS ORDERED that the motion for default judgment is granted and that judgment shall enter accordingly that plaintiff, Iowa Department of Human Services shall recover from defendant Juneal H. Marsh, jointly and severally, the sum of $1,983.61, and that this judgment shall be excepted from the defendants' discharge pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(2).

SO ORDERED THIS 27th DAY OF Sept., 1991.
